

DEAN, Frances Louise

Hugo resident, Frances Louise Dean, 93, passed away on November 4. She was a retired school teacher and a member of the First Christian Church of Hugo.

Mrs. Dean was born in McAlester on September 11, 1901, to Charles Powell and Gertrude (Gammon) Abbott Sr. She taught school, and was devoted to work in her church. Mrs. Dean had lived in this community all of her life.

She was married to Benjamin D. Dean who precedes her in death. She was also preceded in death by her daughter, Bennie Lou Dean.

Surviving relatives include a cousin - Anna Lee Pullen of Hugo; three nieces -- Betty Scott of Tulsa, Ruth McCrum of Enid and Martha Ruth Trendle of Tulsa and other nieces and a nephew.

Funeral service was held November 7, 1994 at 11:00 a.m. in the First Christian Church of Hugo. Reverend Charles Bretz officiated. Burial was in the Mount Olivet Cemetery.